WORK IS WORSHIP

"Every child is taught that useful work is worship and intelligent labour is the highest form of Prayer."

Dear students

Life is all about Work, and when we know that work is a reflection of life, so why to compromise with the quality of work!

Every human is born with two hands and a mouth. It means God wants us to work. We have to work to satisfy our needs. When a human works sincerely, he/she gets success in life. When he/she works half-heartedly, he/she is bound to fail.

As is the case with Work, so is the case with Worship. A worshipper worships with some aim in mind. He wants to be free from sufferings. He does not worry about the obstacles on the way. A worshipper can find God if he worships sincerely. A worker can succeed if he works honestly. So work and worship are similar in nature.

Both work and worship aim at ending sufferings. They try to create happiness on earth. For a student, to study sincerely and properly is a work. For a teacher to fulfill all duties and to impart a value education is a work. For a doctor to treat patients is a work, but the important part is that how many of us are sure that we work like a worship?? Not even 10% of the population is taking work as a worship, because in case they would have taken it, then this world would have become a better place to live.

We all should understand that: it is not only what we do makes a difference; but also how the task is done, makes a real difference. So, Let us all together understand and start doing our each and every task, as if it is worship for us. See, how contented we would feel and how much focused we would be.

Work that is done for the welfare of human beings is worship.
